Day 4 Fes The Imperial City of Fes

After breakfast, you begin a full day dedicated to Fes, one of Morocco's great imperial cities and a remarkable center of history, learning, craftsmanship, and traditional Moroccan life. Your exploration begins with some of the city's notable landmarks before continuing into the extraordinary Fes el-Bali, the UNESCO-listed old medina.

Entering through the celebrated Bab Bou Jeloud, you step into a fascinating maze of narrow lanes, lively souks, historic buildings, fountains, workshops, and hidden courtyards. As you walk through the medina, your guide introduces you to the rich cultural heritage of Fes and its centuries-old artisan traditions.

You pass historic madrasas and the surroundings of the renowned Al Quaraouiyine Mosque and University, an institution closely associated with the city's long intellectual and spiritual history. One of the day's most memorable experiences is a visit to the traditional tanneries, where leather continues to be prepared and dyed using techniques passed down through generations.
